Whom they are Visiting and Where they are Going.

Local Items of Interest Picked Up for Our Sentinel Readers.

"Paul's view of affections" will be Dr. Steward's Sunday morning subject at the Presbyterian church. At 7 p. m. he will speak on "An Oriental Wedding."

Grace and Louie Green of this city spent last Saturday in the Capital City.

Mr. Luke Lehman, Sunday at Columbus.

Miss Letha Martin returned home Sunday, after a week's visit with friends in Columbus.

Mrs. Jacob Hammond of Lancaster, attended the funeral of her brother, Mr. Joe Kreig, and while in the city, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. El. Donavio.

Miss Carrie Lutz is spending this week with friends in Cincinnati.

Mr. A. F. Scott of Athens was a Sunday visitor in Logan, guest of his brother, Ira L. Scott.

Miss Grace Mattox is visiting relatives in Columbus.

The Lancaster Gazette of Monday notes that Mrs. Sam Remple and daughter, of Logan, spent Sunday with Mrs. G. Jurgensmier.

Mr. Frank Rochester, the efficient and popular steward of the Athens Asylum, was a visitor among friends in the city last week.

The ball given by the Knights of St. John on last Thursday evening was a very successful and very enjoyable social affair.

Mrs. Hall the wife of Andy Hall of our city, and one of our best known and most esteemed women of our town, died on last Friday after a brief illness. Her husband, and her sons George and Christ, who survive her, have the sympathy of the community in the bereavement.

The Hocking Valley railroad of late has adopted a stringent measure relative to those who hop freight trains. The detective of the company, T. S. Haxton, arrested twenty-four boys Sunday, who were arraigned before Mayor A. H. Brooks on the charge of hopping trains. Each was fined $1.00 and costs, total amount $3.25, in each case. The mayor served notice that hereafter no leniency will be shown.

Mr. Steve Evers of Haydensville, and one of the progressive men of our county, was a welcome visitor on last Monday.

Mrs. Salinas Kessler died at her home in Logan on last Thursday, a husband and infant mourn her death. The public sympathy is extended to the young husband in his affliction. The funeral was from the residence on last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Steward conducting the religious services.

Misses Leona and Vivian Wells, the accomplished daughters of Edith Wells of Buckeye News, of Nelsonville, attended the funeral of Julius Jurgensmier, Tuesday afternoon, and while in our city made the festive a pleasant call. The girls are invited to come again and stay longer.

Miss Minnie Shorr of Ft. Wayne, Ind. is the charming guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Till.

A Business Parable.

Once a farmer had one thousand eight hundred bushels of wheat which he sold not to a single grain merchant, but to one thousand eight hundred different dealers, a bushel each. A few of them paid him in cash, but far the greater number said it was not convenient then, but would pay later. A few months passed and the man's bank account ran low. "How is this?" he said. "My one thousand eight hundred bushels of grain should have me in affluence until another crop is raised, but I have parted with the grain and have instead only a vast number of accounts so small and scattered that I cannot get around and collect it fast enough to pay expenses." So he posted up a public notice and asked all these who owed him to pay quickly. But few came. The rest said mine is only a small matter, and I will go and pay one of these days, forgetting that though each account was small when all were put together they meant a large sum to the man. Things went on thus; he got to feeling so badly he felt out of led and awake, and running to his granary found his one thousand eight hundred bushels of wheat still safe there. He had only been dreaming and had not sold his wheat at all.

The next day the man went to the publisher of his paper and said:

"Here, sir, is the pay for your paper; and when next year's subscription is due you can depend on me to pay it promptly. I stood in the position of an editor last night, and I know how it feels to have one's honestly earned money scattered all over the country in small amounts."

The Twice Five Club.

The Twice Five Club held regular meeting at Mr. Pettit's on last Monday evening. All the members of the Club and their wives were present except Mr. S. Shinkler.

The guests of the host and hostess and of the Club were Mr. and Mrs. Will Keynes, Father Powers, the Misses Emma and Lucy Westenhaver, Miss Vail, Miss Kanode, Miss Dora Nell Green.

The subject for discussion was Compulsory Arbitration.

Mr. Woodworth read a very well considered paper favoring the idea. Mr. Hargraves supported the position taken by Mr. Woodworth that arbitration, or differences should be settled by compulsion.

Mr. John F. White and Judge Wright and Mr. Green protested. The points advanced by Mr. White and Judge Wright were that the law does not authorize an enforced settlement of differences by compulsory course. Mr. Green held that compulsory arbitration was Imperialism in gilded and most dangerous form.

Not the Imperialism of Caesar or Napoleon, Imperialism of Master minds; but the Imperialism of Money, the selfish bloodsucker spider with net to catch and greed to eat all of the free wings that fly in the world.

Mr. Green read a paper on Slavery, assigned to defend the Institution. He took the position that God authorized Slavery, quoted the Bible to sustain him; asserted that Christ did not condemn the Institution, and that all nations Christians as well as Pagan from Abraham of U to Abraham of ours maintained it. He advanced the proposition that slavery was not a crime in law because all laws sustained it. It was not a sin because Moses and Christ and all subsequent law makers and ministers accepted it.

The meeting was the most successful the Club has held during the season.

Mrs. Pettit, assisted by Miss Lucy Westenhaver entertained the company to a delightful banquet, a veritable Locustus spread. There has not been in our city a social gathering in which there has been such a feast, a feast of good things to eat and a feast of good things to say, than the meeting last Monday night at Pettit's.

The Twice Five Club accepted an invitation to come in a body to an entertainment given at the Saturday Club.

The Bad, Bad Man.

From the last issue of the Dollison Democrat we learn that Sil Purcell, late editor of the Hillman, has been attempting to seduce Jesse Bruce Dollison, the young editor, the virginal democrat, from the path of political rectitude.

The old Sinner Sil, imitating an ancient prototype instead of going up on a mountain top to develop his scheme, giving away the whole earth, seeks the seduction of Shin Bone Alley, and upon up a proposition.

Satan in his attempted deal to organize a Trust on the mountain, did not bring in Moses and Elias and other great prophets to back him in his play.

Sil, the Satan of this present procedure gives reference to Archbishop Sands and Commodore Greco, and attempts with these names of Saints in politics and prophets as well, to impose on the innocence of youth, an off-spring of the Saurian.

Of course Satan and Sil have been exposed. The editor of the Dollison has not been tampered with successfully. Archbishop Sands continues in sanctification, and the Commodore sails his SEXTONEL.

Let us have war, and then we can have some fun.

Why Not State of Jefferson.

Why is there so much delay in admitting the territories? The republicans have for two campaigns pledged themselves unequivocally to the admission of territories, and yet they seem more interested in ship subsidy bills and other measures that they dared not specifically in those, than in the measures which they so strongly advocated.

Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, including the Indian Territory are ready for admission. It is to be that the route over any single or double standard will not prevent the admission of Oklahoma. If Oklahoma and Indian Territory cannot agree upon a name, why not drop "Indian Territory" and "Oklahoma" and substitute the name of "Jefferson" for both? The state of Indiana preserves the Indian name, and the name Oklahoma can be preserved in some local way. The land embraced in the Indian and Oklahoma territories is the last of the Louisiana Purchase to be incorporated into a state. It would be a fitting tribute to Jefferson to thus give his name to a part of the territory purchased under his administration. It would require probably a bill for the necessary formalities, so that the admission of the state and the adoption of the name would be a fitting celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the great trans-Mississippi region.

Washington's name has already been given to a state, and Jefferson stands next to Washington among the presidents and leaders in services rendered to the American people.—Commonwealth.

Francis Joseph Kreig.

"Joe" Kreig as this community knows him, died at his home in Logan, on last Friday morning. He was in the 82nd year of his age. The funeral was on last Monday, from St. John's Catholic church, Fr. Powers celebrating Requiem Mass and conducting the religious burial services.

The church was crowded with sorrowing people coming in testimony of the esteem in which the dead was held.

The deceased was, by birth, an Alsace-Frenchman. His father was one of the Imperial Guard of Napoleon.

When St. Helena had extinguished all hope to the surviving Guard and France shored under the restored Bourbons, he hoped for the "Men of Waterloo," the father, with his family came to America.

After a transient stay in several places, the Kreig family located in Perry County, in the neighborhood of French, who had located here before.

The father, although he had been at Freidland in that wild ride, been to Moscow and helped with Ney to cover the retreat, he was at Waterloo under Cambronne and was wounded by the Blucher charge and never regained a wound, and met his death in the peaceful work of helping a neighbor to raise a barn.

Joe, the oldest, at the death of his father, took charge of caring for and raising the family.

He learned carpentry, and this was his trade through life. He was an Argonaut, one of the forty miners, who went to California in the early years of the gold mining excitement. The vessel in which he sailed was under control of "Fillibusters," and landed in Cuba where the attempt was made to give the Cuban freedom. He narrowly escaped capture and the garrote, but was happy in his last years to know that Cuba was free. For several years he was manager of the Bridge Department on the Hocking Valley railroad.

He built the first Catholic church in Logan, doing the work and bonding himself for the cost of material needed. To him, as much as to any one, is due the liberal donations on his solicitation which have helped to make the new church an ornament to our town, as well as a temple of religion.

Joe Kreig was one of our oldest citizens, one of the longest time residents of our town. When he came to Logan it was a hamlet, an obscure village in the hills. He was one of the strong men, who by his judgment and his applied good sense in useful work, lifted the town to the vernal of the Valley. He was for many years a Councilman, for 9 terms our County Commissioner, and for fifty years, one of our best citizens. In his public service, as well as in his business and social relations, he was an exemplar of industry, of honesty, of decency.

He was a character man, "such as other men." He was only like himself, and stood before the public eye the same self-willed, the same straight going, plain spoken, honest intending christian man. He had opponents, but no enemies. No one, opposing his motives and his purposes, ever questioned the honesty and sincerity of his motives, and this entire community bear in testimony to his memory and in the life, the praise to his good name.

He lived out the allotted years. He completed the pilgrimage. He fought the good fight, he kept the faith. May we not hope as we pray that the promise is recorded him, and that he has entered into the joys prepared for such as him in Heaven.

Mrs. Kreig and family desire thus publicly to acknowledge appreciation of kindness and sympathy, and thank neighbors and friends for kind attention during time of sickness and bereavement.

Surprised.

Last Wednesday evening about eight o'clock p. m. the Buckeye Club on invitation from Mrs. John Tritsch and daughter repaired to their home to remind John that he had reached the 56th milestone in his journey through life.

In a few moments after they arrived, John came home and when he found the parlor full of his old comrades, he stood speechless. The surprise was complete. After congratulations, Mrs. Tritsch invited the Club into the dining room where they were quickly seated and as quickly proceeded to clear the table as only old soldiers can do. Satisfying the inner man, a fine repast and case filled with some good old wine was presented on behalf of the club to our host, who responded with thanks and passed the cigars. Seated around the table, the old boys smoked and sang the old war songs until a late hour when they repaired to their homes wishing John many returns of his birthday, and thanking Mrs. Tritsch for a very enjoyable evening.

A Little Book of Great Importance.

Do you ever wish for a book that can be relied upon to answer correctly all the little questions and knotty problems that present themselves day by day—a book that will quickly decide all arguments on all subjects? The 1902 Almanac and Encyclopedia, which is now ready, is exactly this kind of book. It takes the same position in the world of facts and figures as does the dictionary in the world of words.

This little volume contains over 600 pages of well printed matter, every line containing some fact that you will sooner or later want to look up.

The World Almanac should occupy prominent place in every progressive American household. The 1902 edition is more complete than any of the former ones. It contains facts on many subjects that have recently been brought to public notice and which every up-to-date person should have at his fingers' end.

Among the features of the 1902 are:

The millionaires of the United States—a list giving the names of nearly 4,000 Americans who possess over $1,000,000. The great American trusts; full particulars of 163 leading industrial organizations; Organized labor; enlarged statistics of the strength of labor unions and the present condition of the labor movement. The Nicaragua Canal and the Hay-Panama treaties with Great Britain. Progress of aerial navigation in 1901. Complete United States Census. Authoritative statistics of the United States and Empire, etc., etc. to the extent of over 1,000 topics.

The 1902 World Almanac and Encyclopedia is on sale by all news dealers throughout the country for 25c. When ordered by mail 10 cts. extra for postage must be enclosed to The World, New York.
